

I always had an unlisted phone number and prior to the NJ do not call list i received unsolicited calls every day, i am a hard working person and the last thing I want is to be answering calls from telemarquers and since I am required to be on-call for my employer i can not even disconnect the phone. so do not mess with the NJ do not call list, since it is what we want it to be.

thank you